

This transportation resource guide focuses primarily on the communities in Contra Costa County. It is intended to provide easily accessible transportation information for employers, local residents, and commuters in this part of the Bay Area. Making this information available will help promote the use of commute alternatives to reduce traffic congestion and improve air quality.

Disclaimer: Every attempt has been made to ensure the information contained herein is valid at the time of publication. 511 Contra Costa reserves the right to make changes, corrections and/or improvements at any time and without notice. In addition, 511 Contra Costa disclaims any and all liability for damages incurred directly or indirectly as a result of errors, omissions or discrepancies including those made by others.

OFFICES & LOCATIONS

511 Contra Costa consists of three regional offices that develop and administer projects and programs on behalf of the 20 Contra Costa County jurisdictions, with direction from four Regional Transportation Planning Committees. Funding is provided primarily by the Contra Costa Transportation Authority's half-cent transportation sales tax measure, the Metropolitan Transportation Commission and the Bay Area Air Quality Management District's Transportation Fund for Clean Air.
